

ST. MARY THE VIRGIN, LAIRA

Amateur Dramatic Society

Parish Hall

Thursday, March 30th, 1950

at 7.30 p.m.

3 ONE ACT PLAYS.

"The Bathroom Door"

by Gertrude E. Jennings.

"The Beauty Spot"

by Ivor Brown.

"Up She Rises"

by Patricia M. Donahue.

Proceeds towards new stage curtains. Interval for refreshments between 2nd and 3rd play.

Programme 3d.

Play 1

THE BATHROOM DOOR

A Farce by Gertrude E. Jennings.

Scene - A passage on the fourth floor of the Hotel Majestic.
Time 8 a.m.

Cast

The Young Man	David Sugg.
The Young Lady	Pamela Palmer.
The Old Gentleman	Harry Jarrold.
The Elderly Lady	Patricia Twigg.
The Prima Donna	Dorothy Birch.
The Boots	Stanley May.

Produced by Victor I. Rees.

Play 2

THE BEAUTY SPOT

by Ivor Brown

Scene - Top of a hill in England, overlooking beautiful countryside.

Prologue takes place on a summer afternoon a few years ago.

Play occurs today on a late summer afternoon.

Cast

John Walker
Mary Hall
Mrs. Street
Mrs. Townrow
Henry Parker, the Warden
Jane Wheeler
Alicia Pobjoy M.P.

Rev. Francis G. Rice.
Sylvia May.
Madge May.
Nellie Rees.
Samuel Baxter.
Ann Kimmins.
Marion Hannaford.

Produced by Ernest J. Hannaford.

Play 3

UP SHE RISES

by Patricia E. Donahue.

Scene - Outside a Cornish Cottage. About teatime.

Cast

Lucy Treglaze
Emily Treglaze
Daniel Treglaze
Jim Treglaze
Molly Thomas
Frank Gribben

Betty Churchward.
Dorothy Birch.
Arthur Spear.
Ernest Hannaford.
Eileen Hocken.
David Smith.

Produced by Marion Hannaford.

Stage Scenery by Stage Electrician

E. James and W. Symons.
William C. May.

Forthcoming events

A Dance, the proceeds of which, will also be towards the new stage curtains, will be held in the Parish Hall on Saturday, May 20th.

A Chara trip to ~~Polperro~~ ^{Blovely} and tea at Bude, on Saturday June 17th. Leaving St. Mary's at 1.30 p.m. Arriving back about 10.30 p.m. Friends wishing to take advantage of this outing are advised to make early application as accommodation is limited. Inclusive cost coach and tea approx. 15/- Children (2/3rd fare) 10/6.

Wm. C. May.

Hon. Sec.